

GAA Games4ALL

All Stars Program- 7 steps

Initiative: Register for "GAA Games for ALL" Team with your clubs Juvenile section and club executive.

Training :GAA Foundation level or Inclusion module and safeguarding completed.

Preparation: Club Membership forms completed and insurance notified of sessions.

Introduction: Meeting at club with children and parents: understand the program.

Logistics: Venue and time confirmed for each week for training session; visual timetables, Passport ID for children to keep.

Experts: Link in with the clubs Games promotion officer and community partners.

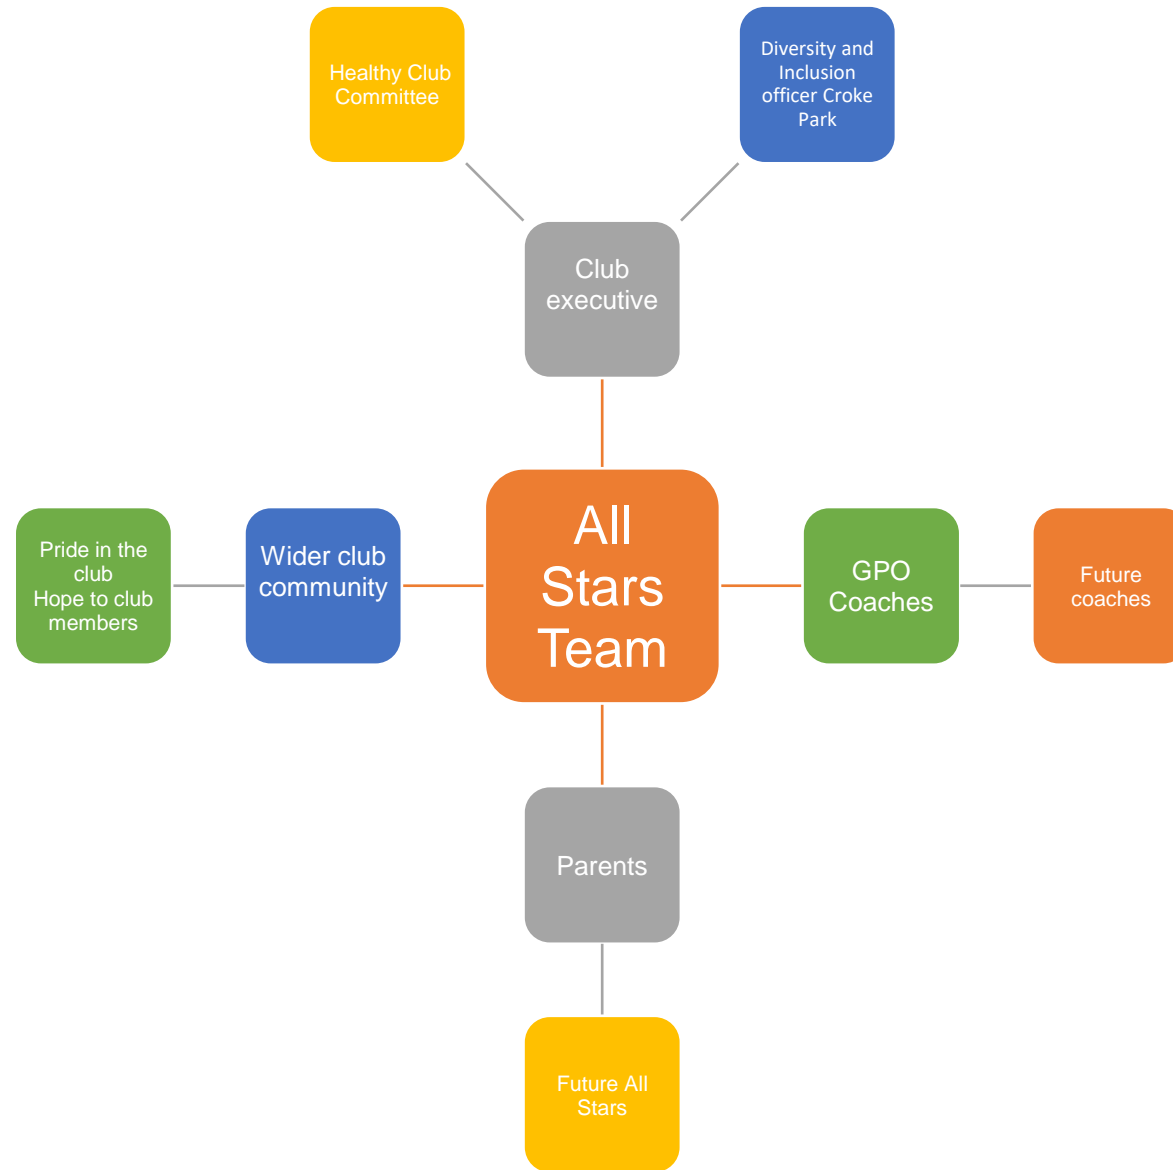

Sharing good news: Communication developments and newsletter to parents and club.

ALL STARS

What it takes to make it happen

- Organising Group
- Participation Forms
- Training ID Forms
- Visual Timetables
- Weekly updates to Parents & Coaches via Whatsapp
- Term Newsletters Parents
- Meetings & Coaches Training & Development Sessions (e.g. Brain Storm meeting)
- All Star Rules – Play Fair-Give Respect-Get Respect
- Sessions devised by head coach, sometimes guest coaches.
- All coaches are compliant with GAA requirements, safeguarding and Disability Inclusion Training
- The children, parents, coaches, club executive, wider club community.
- Funding: Supported by LSP Sports Inclusion Development Officer, Parents, Club Members (Fundraising)

ALL STARS

The Where, The How & The Why

- Every Friday evening (5pm – 5.45pm)
- Sessions devised by head coach
- Assisted by senior and juvenile coaches
- Develop ball skills, tailored to each All Star
- Safe and fun environment
- Any participation is a success for us
- Children have exercise, fun and socialise in the fresh air

MOST IMPORTANTLY - THE
CHILDREN HAVE FUN AND PARTICPATE